(3) Upon the disposition by an international business company of a treasury share, the consideration in respect of the share is added to surplus.

(2) In the case of a dividend of authorised but unissued shares with par value, an amount equal to the aggregate par value of the shares shall be transferred from surplus to capital at the time of the distribution.

(3) In the case of a dividend of authorised but unissued shares without par value, the amount designated by the directors shall be transferred from surplus to capital at the time of the distribution, except that the directors must designate as capital an amount that is at least equal to the amount that the shares are entitled to as a preference, if any, in the assets of the international business company upon its liquidation.

(4) A division of the issued and outstanding shares of a class or series of shares into a larger number of shares of the same class or series having a proportionately smaller par value does not constitute a dividend of shares.

21. (1) Subject to its articles or by-laws, an international business company may, by a resolution of directors, amend its articles or by-laws to increase or reduce its authorised capital, and in connection therewith, the company may—

- (b) increase or reduce the par value of any of its shares; or
- (c) effect any combination under paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) Where an international business company reduces its authorised capital under subsection (1), then, for purposes of computing the capital of the company, any capital that immediately before the reduction was represented by shares but immediately following the reduction is no longer represented by shares is deemed to be capital transferred from surplus to capital.

(3) An international business company must, within 14 days of the date of the resolution referred to under subsection (1), file a notice of any increase or decrease in its authorised capital in the prescribed form.

(4) An increase or decrease of the authorised capital of an international business company has effect from the time the resolution is registered by the Registrar in accordance with section 10.

and the articles or by-laws may provide for the signatures or common seal to be facsimiles.

 - (ii) the number of each class or series of bearer shares specified therein,
 - (iii) the date of issue of the certificate, and
 - (iv) the name and address of the custodian of the certificate;

but the company may delete from the register information relating to persons who are no longer shareholders or information relating to bearer shares that have been cancelled.

(Act 6 of 2006 s. 4)

(2) The share register may be in any such form as the directors may approve but if it is in magnetic, electronic or other data storage form, the international business company must be able to produce legible evidence of its contents.

(3) A copy of the share register, commencing from the date of the registration of the international business company, shall be kept at the registered office of the company referred to in section 36 or at the office of the registered agent referred to in section 37.

(4) The share register is prima facie evidence of any matters directed or authorised by this Act to be contained in it.

(5) An international business company that contravenes this section commits an offence.

Rectification of share register

25. (1) If—

(a) information that is required to be entered in the share register under section 24 is omitted from it or inaccurately entered in it; or

(b) there is unreasonable delay in entering the information in the share register;

a shareholder of the international business company, or any person who is aggrieved by the omission, inaccuracy or delay, may apply to the Court for an order that the share register be rectified, and the Court may either grant or refuse the application, with or without costs to be paid by the applicant, or order the rectification of the share register, and may direct the company to pay all costs of the application and any damages the applicant may have sustained.

(2) In any proceedings under subsection (1), the Court may determine any question relating to the right of a person who is a party to the proceedings to have his name entered in or omitted from the share register, whether the question arises between—

(a) 2 or more shareholders or alleged shareholders; or

(b) between shareholders or alleged shareholders and the company;

and generally the Court may in the proceeding determine any question that may be necessary or expedient to be determined for the rectification of the share register.

Transfer of registered shares

26. (1) Subject to the articles or by-laws of an international business company, a registered share in the company may be transferred by a written instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee.

(2) In the absence of a written instrument of transfer referred to in subsection (1), the directors may accept such evidence of a transfer of shares as they consider appropriate.

(3) An international business company shall not be required to treat a transferee of a registered share in the company as a shareholder until the transferee's name has been entered in the share register.

(4) Subject to its articles or by-laws, an international business company must, on the application of the transferor or transferee of a registered share in the company, enter in its share register the name of the transferee of the share.

(5) A transfer of registered shares of a deceased, incompetent or bankrupt shareholder made by his personal representative, guardian or trustee, as the case may be, or a transfer of registered shares owned by a person as a result of a transfer from a shareholder by operation of law, has the same validity as if the personal representative, guardian, trustee or transferee had been the registered holder of the shares at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), what amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by the Court having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case.

(7) An international business company that contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence.

- (b) providing for bearer shares to be disabled where the regulations are not complied with; and
- (c) providing for such transitional provisions as the Governor may consider necessary or expedient to have effect consequent upon the coming into operation of the regulations.

(3) During the period in which a bearer share of an international business company is disabled pursuant to regulations made under subsection (2), that bearer share does not carry any of the entitlements which it would otherwise carry, including an entitlement to vote, an entitlement to a dividend and an entitlement to a share in the assets of the company on its winding up or on its dissolution, and, subject to subsection (4), any transfer or purported transfer of an interest in the bearer share is void and of no effect.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to the transfer or delivery of a bearer share of an international business company—

- (a) to a custodian in accordance with regulations made under subsection (2); or
- (b) to the company where the share is to be, or has been—
 - (i) converted to, or exchanged for, a registered share,

(Act 6 of 2006 s. 5)

Seizure

28. (1) Unless the by-laws provide otherwise, where a governmental authority, whether it is legally constituted or not, in any jurisdiction outside Anguilla—

- (a) by or in connection with a nationalisation, expropriation, confiscation, coercion, force, duress or similar action; or
- (b) by or in connection with the imposition of any confiscatory tax, assessment or other governmental charge;

takes or seizes any shares or other interest in an international business company, the company itself or a person holding shares or any other interest in the company, including an interest as a creditor, may apply to the Court for an order that the company disregard the taking or seizure and continue to treat the person who would have held the shares or any other interest in the company but for the taking or seizure of the shares or other interest as continuing to hold the shares or other interest.

(2) Without affecting subsection (1), where a person whose shares or other interests have been taken or seized as referred to in subsection (1) is other than a natural person, the person making the application under subsection (1), or the company itself, may apply to the Court for an additional order for the company to treat the persons believed by the company to have held the direct or indirect beneficial interests in the shares or other interests in the company as the holder of those shares or other interests.

(3) The Court may, upon application made to it under subsection (1) or (2)—

- (a) grant such relief as it considers equitable and proper; and
- (b) order that any shares or other interests in the company vest in such trustees as the Court may appoint upon such trusts and for such purposes as the Court determines.

Acquisition of own shares

29. (1) Subject to its articles or by-laws, an international business company may purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire and hold its own shares but only out of surplus or in exchange for newly issued shares of equal value.

(2) No purchase, redemption or other acquisition permitted under subsection (1) shall be made unless the directors determine that immediately after the purchase, redemption or other acquisition—

- (a) the company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business; and
- (b) the realisable value of the assets of the company will not be less than the sum of its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of account, and its capital;

and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

(3) A determination by the directors under subsection (2) is not required where shares are purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired—

- (a) pursuant to a right of a shareholder to have his shares redeemed or to have his shares exchanged for money or other property of the company;

- (b) by virtue of a transfer of capital under section 31(1)(b)(iii);
- (c) by virtue of the provisions of section 92; and
- (d) pursuant to an order of the Court.

(4) Subject to its by-laws or articles, shares that an international business company purchases, redeems or otherwise acquires may be cancelled or held as treasury shares unless the shares are purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by virtue of a reduction in capital in a manner that would be a contravention of the requirements of section 31(2), in which case they shall be cancelled but they shall be available for reissue and, upon the cancellation of a share, the amount included as capital of the company with respect to that share shall be deducted from the capital of the company.

Treasury shares disabled

30. Where shares in an international business company—

- (a) are held by the company as treasury shares; or
- (b) are held by another company of which the international business company holds, directly or indirectly, shares having more than 50% of the votes in the election of directors of the other company;

the shares of the international business company are not entitled to vote or to have dividends paid on them and shall not be treated as outstanding for any purpose under this Act except for purposes of determining the capital of the international business company.

Increase or reduction of capital

31. (1) Subject to its articles or by-laws and subject to subsections (2) and (3), the capital of an international business company may, by a resolution of directors, be—

- (a) increased by transferring an amount of the surplus of the company to capital; or
- (b) reduced by—
 - (i) returning to shareholders any amount received by the company upon the issue of any of its shares, the amount being surplus to the requirements of the company,
 - (ii) cancelling any capital that is lost or not represented by assets having a realisable value, or
 - (iii) transferring capital to surplus for the purpose of purchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring shares that the directors have resolved to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire.

(2) No reduction of capital shall be effected that reduces the capital of the international business company to an amount that is less than the sum of—

- (a) the aggregate par value of—
 - (i) all outstanding shares with par value, and

- (ii) all shares with par value held by the company as treasury shares; and
- (b) the aggregate of the amounts designated as capital of—
 - (i) all outstanding shares without par value, and
 - (ii) all shares without par value held by the company as treasury shares that are entitled to a preference, if any, in the assets of the company upon liquidation of the company.

(3) No reduction of capital shall be effected under subsection (1) unless the directors determine that immediately after the reduction—

- (a) the company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business; and
- (b) the realisable value of the assets of the company will not be less than its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of account, and its remaining capital;

and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the company is conclusive unless a question of law is involved.

Dividends

32. (1) Subject to its articles or by-laws, an international business company may, by a resolution of its directors, declare and pay dividends in money, shares or other property.

(2) Dividends shall only be declared and paid out of surplus.

(3) No dividend shall be declared and paid unless the directors determine that immediately after the payment of the dividend—

- (a) the company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business; and
- (b) the realisable value of the assets of the company will not be less than the sum of its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of account, and its capital;

and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

Consequences of unlawful distribution

33. (1) For the purposes of this section, an international business company makes an unlawful distribution if it—

- (a) purchases, redeems or otherwise acquires its own shares under section 29 in circumstances where the directors have not made the determination of solvency required by section 29(2);

 - (i) contrary to section 32(2), or
 - (ii) in circumstances where the directors have not made the determination of solvency required by section 32(3).

(2) An international business company that makes an unlawful distribution commits an offence.

(3) Where an international business company makes an unlawful distribution, the Court may, on the application of the company or its liquidator, make a recovery order against a shareholder under subsection (4) or a compensation order against a director under subsection (5).

(4) Where a benefit is received by a shareholder as a result of an unlawful distribution, an order for the recovery of the benefit may be made against the shareholder unless the shareholder—

- (a) received the benefit in good faith and without knowledge of the failure of the directors to make a determination of solvency; and
- (b) has altered his position in reliance upon the validity of the unlawful distribution so that, having regard to all the circumstances, it would be inequitable to make a recovery order for the full amount of the benefit or at all.

(5) Where an international business company makes an unlawful distribution, a compensation order may be made against any director who knowingly authorised, acquiesced in or permitted the unlawful distribution, but the total sum ordered to be paid by those directors against whom a compensation order is made shall not exceed such sum as is necessary to restore the company to the position that it would have been in had the unlawful distribution not been made after taking account of the value of any benefits recovered from shareholders pursuant to an order made under subsection (4).

Appreciation of assets

34. Subject to its articles or by-laws, an international business company may, by a resolution of directors, include in the computation of surplus for any purpose under this Act the net unrealised appreciation of the assets of the company, and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the value of the assets is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

Mortgages and charges of shares

35. (1) A mortgage or charge of shares of an international business company must be in writing signed by, or with the authority of, the holder of the bearer share or the registered holder of the registered share to which the mortgage or charge relates.

(4) A mortgage or charge of shares of an international business company may be governed by the law of a jurisdiction other than Anguilla but, if a law other than the law of Anguilla is specified as the governing law—

- (a) the mortgage or charge must be in compliance with the requirements of its governing law in order for the mortgage or charge to be valid and binding on the company; and
- (b) the remedies available to a mortgagee or chargee shall be governed by the governing law and the instrument creating the mortgage or charge save that the rights between the mortgagor or mortgagee as a member of the company and the company shall continue to be governed by the articles and by-laws of the company and this Act.

(5) If no law is specified to govern a mortgage or charge of shares of an international business company, the instrument creating the mortgage or charge shall be governed by the laws of Anguilla and, in the case of a default by the mortgagor or chargor on the terms of the mortgage, the mortgagee or chargee is entitled to the following remedies—

- (a) subject to any limitations or provisions to the contrary in the instrument creating the mortgage or charge, the right to sell the shares; and

 - (i) vote the shares,
 - (ii) receive dividends and other payments in respect of the shares, and

(6) Subsection (5) also applies to a mortgage or charge of shares of an international business company where the law of Anguilla is specified as the governing law.

(7) Subject to any provisions to the contrary in the instrument of mortgage or charge of shares of an international business company, all amounts that accrue from the enforcement of the mortgage or charge shall be applied in the following manner—

- (a) firstly, in meeting the costs incurred in enforcing the mortgage or charge;
- (b) secondly, in discharging the sums secured by the mortgage or charge; and

- (c) thirdly, in paying any balance due to the mortgagor or chargor.
- (8) The remedies referred to in subsection (5) are not exercisable until—
- (a) a default has occurred and has continued for a period of not less than 30 days, or such shorter period as may be specified in the instrument creating the mortgage or charge; and
 - (b) the default has not been rectified within 14 days from service of the notice specifying the default and requiring rectification thereof.
- (9) In the case of the mortgage or charge of registered shares, there may be entered in the share register of the company—

Reliance on records and reports

54. Every director, officer, agent and liquidator of an international business company in performing his functions is entitled to rely upon the share register kept under section 24, the books of accounts and records and the minutes and copies of consents to resolutions kept under section 65 and any report made to the company by any other director, officer, agent or liquidator or by any person selected by the company to make the report.

Conflict of interest

55. (1) Subject to the articles or by-laws, if the requirements of subsection (2) or (3) are satisfied, no agreement or transaction between—

- (a) an international business company; and
- (b) one or more of its directors or liquidators, or any person in which any director or liquidator has a financial interest or to whom any director or liquidator is related, including as a director or liquidator of that other person; is void or voidable for this reason only or by reason only that the director or liquidator is present at the meeting of directors or liquidators, or at the meeting of the committee of directors, that approves the agreement or transaction or that the vote or consent of the director or liquidator is counted for that purpose.

(2) An agreement or transaction referred to in subsection (1) is valid if—

- (a) the material facts of the interest of each director or liquidator in the agreement or transaction and his interest in or relationship to any other party to the agreement or transaction are disclosed in good faith or are known by the other directors or liquidators; and
- (b) the agreement or transaction is approved or ratified by a resolution of directors or liquidators that has been approved—
 - (i) without counting the vote or consent of any interested director or liquidator, or
 - (ii) by the unanimous vote or consent of all disinterested directors or liquidators if the votes or consents of all disinterested directors or liquidators is insufficient to approve a resolution of directors or liquidators.

(3) An agreement or transaction referred to in subsection (1) is valid if—

- (a) the material facts of the interest of each director or liquidator in the agreement or transaction and his interest in or relationship to any other party to the agreement or transaction are disclosed in good faith or are known by the shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders; and
- (b) the agreement or transaction is approved or ratified by a resolution of shareholders.

(4) Subject to the articles or by-laws, a director or liquidator who has an interest in any particular business to be considered at a meeting of directors, liquidators or shareholders may be counted for purposes of determining whether the meeting is duly constituted in accordance with section 49 or otherwise.

Indemnification

56. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and to the articles or by-laws, an international business company may indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings against any person who—

- (a) is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, an officer or a liquidator of the company; or
- (b) is or was, at the request of the company, serving as a director, officer or liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

(2) Subsection (1) only applies to a person referred to in that subsection if the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the company and, in the case of criminal proceedings, the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(3) The decision of the directors as to whether the person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the company and as to whether the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful is, in the absence of fraud, sufficient for the purposes of this section, unless a question of law is involved.

(4) The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi does not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(5) If a person referred to in subsection (1) has been successful in defence of any proceedings referred to in subsection (1), the person is entitled to be indemnified against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the proceedings.

Quorum for meetings of shareholders

75. (1) Subject to its articles, an international business company may, by an instrument in writing, create a charge over its property.

(2) A charge created by an international business company shall be governed—

(b) if the company and the chargee do not agree on a governing law, by the law of Anguilla.

(a) subsection (1) does not require the acquisition of the property to be by instrument in writing, if the acquisition is not otherwise required to be by instrument in writing; and

(b) unless the company and the chargee agree otherwise, the governing law of the charge is the law that governs the charge immediately before the acquisition by the company of the property subject to the charge.

International business company to keep register of charges

76. (1) An international business company must keep a register of all relevant charges created by the company showing—

Exceptions to section 81

82. Notwithstanding section 81—

- (a) the order of priorities of charges is subject to—
 - (i) any consent (express or implied) of the holder of a charge that varies the priority of that charge in relation to one or more other charges that it would, but for the consent, have had priority over, or
 - (ii) any agreement between chargees that effects the priorities in relation to the charges held by the respective chargees; and
- (b) a registered floating charge is postponed to a subsequently registered fixed charge unless the floating charge contains a prohibition or restriction on the power of the company to create any future charge ranking in priority to or equally with the charge.

Inspection of register of charges kept by Registrar

(4) A copy of the plan of merger or an outline thereof must be given to every shareholder of each subsidiary company to be merged unless the giving of that copy or outline has been waived by that shareholder.

(5) Articles of merger must be executed by the parent company and must contain—

(7) Upon the registration of the articles of merger, the Registrar shall issue a certificate under his hand and seal certifying that the articles of merger have been registered.

(8) A certificate of merger issued by the Registrar is prima facie evidence of compliance with all requirements of this Act in respect of the merger.

Effect of merger or consolidation

87. (1) A merger or consolidation is effective on the date the articles of merger or consolidation are registered by the Registrar or on the date subsequent thereto, not exceeding 30 days, that is stated in the articles of merger or consolidation.

(2) As soon as a merger or consolidation becomes effective—

- (a) the surviving company or the consolidated company in so far as is consistent with its articles and by-laws, as amended or established by the articles of merger or consolidation, has all rights, privileges, immunities, powers, objects and purposes of each of the constituent companies;

- (c) in the case of a consolidation, the statements contained in the articles of consolidation, that are required or authorised to be contained in the articles and by-laws of an international business company, are the articles and by-laws of the consolidated company;
- (d) property of every description, including choses in action and the business of each of the constituent companies, immediately vests in the surviving company or the consolidated company; and
- (e) the surviving company or the consolidated company is liable for all claims, debts, liabilities and obligations of each of the constituent companies.

(3) Where a merger or consolidation occurs—

- (b) no proceedings, whether civil or criminal, pending at the time of a merger or consolidation by or against a constituent company, or against any shareholder, director, officer or agent thereof, are abated or discontinued by the merger or consolidation, but—
 - (i) the proceedings may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised by or against the surviving company or the consolidated company or against the shareholder, director, officer or agent thereof, as the case may be, or
 - (ii) the surviving company or the consolidated company may be substituted in the proceedings for a constituent company.
- (4) The Registrar shall strike off the Register—
 - (a) a constituent company that is not the surviving company in a merger; or
 - (b) a constituent company that participates in a consolidation.

Merger or consolidation with foreign company

88. (1) One or more international business companies may merge or consolidate with one or more companies incorporated under the laws of jurisdictions outside Anguilla in accordance with subsections (2) to (4), including where one of the constituent companies is a parent company and the other constituent companies are subsidiary companies, if the merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the jurisdictions in which the companies incorporated outside Anguilla are incorporated.

- (2) The following apply in respect of a merger or consolidation under this section—
 - (a) an international business company shall comply with this Act with respect to the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of such companies, and companies incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Anguilla shall comply with the laws of that jurisdiction; and
 - (b) if the surviving company or the consolidated company is to be incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Anguilla, it must file with the Registrar—

 - (ii) as irrevocable appointment of the Registrar as its agent to accept service of process in proceedings referred to in subparagraph (i),
 - (iii) an agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of a constituent international business company the amount, if any, to which they are entitled under this Act with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders, and
 - (iv) a certificate of merger or consolidation issued by the appropriate authority of the foreign jurisdiction where it is incorporated, or, if no certificate of merger is issued by the appropriate authority of the foreign jurisdiction, then, such evidence of the merger or consolidation as the Registrar considers acceptable.

(3) The effect under this section of a merger or consolidation is the same as in the case of a merger or consolidation under section 85 if the surviving company or the consolidated company is incorporated under this Act, but, if the surviving company or the consolidated company is incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Anguilla, the effect of the merger or consolidation is the same as in the case of a merger or consolidation under section 85 except in so far as the laws of the other jurisdiction otherwise provide.

(4) If the surviving company or the consolidated company is incorporated under this Act, the merger or consolidation is effective on the date the articles of merger or consolidation are registered by the Registrar or on such date subsequent thereto, not exceeding 30 days, as is stated in the articles of merger or consolidation, but, if the surviving company or the consolidated company is incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside Anguilla, the merger or consolidation is effective as provided by the laws of that other jurisdiction.

Disposition of assets

89. Any sale, transfer, lease, exchange or other disposition, other than a mortgage, charge or other encumbrance, of more than 50% of the assets of an international business company, if not made in the usual or regular course of the business carried on by the company, shall be made as follows—

- (a) the proposed sale, transfer, lease, exchange or other disposition must be approved by resolution of the directors; on a merger or consolidation under section 85 may give a written instruction to an international business company directing the company to redeem the shares held by the remaining shareholders.

(2) Upon receipt of the written instruction referred to in subsection (1), the company shall redeem the shares specified in the written instruction whether or not the shares are by their terms redeemable.

(3) The company must give written notice to each shareholder whose shares are to be redeemed stating the redemption price and the manner in which the redemption is to be effected.

Proposed compromise

91. (1) Where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between an international business company and its creditors of any class, or between the company and its shareholders of any class, the Court may, on the application of the company or of any creditor or shareholder of the company or, in the case of a winding up, of the liquidator, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors or of the shareholders of the company or class of shareholders, as the case may be.

(2) If a majority representing 75% in value of the creditors or class of creditors, or shareholders or class thereof as the case may be, present and voting either in person or by proxy at the meeting, agree to any compromise or arrangement and the Court by order approves the compromise or arrangement, it shall be binding on all creditors or class of creditors or on the shareholders or class thereof, as the case may be, and on the company or, in the event of a winding up, on the liquidator.

(3) An order made under subsection (2) has no effect until a copy has been filed with the Registrar, and a copy of the order shall be annexed to copies of the articles of the company issued after the making of the order.

(4) In this section “arrangement” includes a reorganization of the share capital of the company by the consolidation of shares of different classes or by the division of shares into shares of different classes or by both.

Rights of dissenters

92. (1) A shareholder of an international business company is entitled to payment of the fair value of his shares upon dissenting from—

- (a) a merger, if the company is a constituent company, unless the company is the surviving company and the shareholder continues to hold the same or similar shares;
- (b) a consolidation, if the company is a constituent company;
- (c) any sale, transfer, lease, exchange or other disposition of more than 50% of the assets or business of the company, if not made in the usual or regular course of the business carried on by the company, but not including—
 - (i) a disposition pursuant to an order of the Court having jurisdiction in the matter, or
 - (ii) a disposition for money on terms requiring all or substantially all net proceeds to be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of disposition; or
- (d) a redemption of his shares by the company pursuant to section 90.

(2) A shareholder who desires to exercise his entitlement under subsection (1) must give to the company written objection to the action—

- (a) before the meeting of shareholders at which the action is submitted to a vote; or
- (b) at the meeting but before the vote;

but an objection is not required from a shareholder to whom the company did not give notice of the meeting in accordance with this Act or where the proposed action is authorised by written consent of shareholders without a meeting.

(3) An objection under subsection (2) must include a statement that the shareholder proposes to demand payment for his shares if the action is taken.

(4) Within 20 days immediately following the date on which the vote of shareholders authorising the action is taken, or the date on which written consent of shareholders without a meeting is obtained, the company must give written notice of the authorisation or consent to each shareholder who gave written objection or from whom written objection was not required, except those shareholders who voted for, or consented in writing to, the proposed action.

(5) A shareholder to whom the company was required to give notice who elects to dissent must, within 20 days immediately following the date on which the notice referred to in subsection (4) is given, give to the company a written notice of his decision to elect to dissent, stating—

- (a) his name and address;
- (b) the number and classes or series of shares in respect of which he dissents; and
- (c) a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares; and a shareholder who elects to dissent from a merger under section 86 must give to the company a written notice of his decision to elect to dissent within 20 days immediately following the date on which the copy of the plan of merger or an outline thereof is given to him in accordance with section 86.

(6) A shareholder who dissents must do so in respect of all shares that he holds in the company.

(7) Upon the giving of a notice of election to dissent, the shareholder to whom the notice relates ceases to have any of the rights of a shareholder except the right to be paid the fair value of his shares.

(8) Within 7 days immediately following the date of the expiration of the period within which shareholders may give their notices of election to dissent, or within 7 days immediately following the date on which the proposed action is put into effect, whichever is later, the company or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving company or the consolidated company, must make a written offer to each dissenting shareholder to purchase his shares at a specified price that the company determines to be their fair value, and if, within 30 days immediately following the date on which the offer is made, the company making the offer and the dissenting shareholder agree upon the price to be paid for his shares, the company shall pay to the shareholder the amount in money upon the surrender of the certificates representing his shares.

(9) If the company and a dissenting shareholder fail, within the period of 30 days referred to in subsection (8), to agree on the price to be paid for the shares owned by the shareholder, within 20 days immediately following the date on which the period of 30 days expires, the following shall apply—

- (a) the company and the dissenting shareholder shall each designate an appraiser;
- (b) the 2 designated appraisers together shall designate a third appraiser;
- (c) the 3 appraisers shall fix the fair value of the shares owned by the dissenting shareholder as of the close of business on the day prior to the date on which the vote of shareholders authorising the action was taken or the date on which written consent of shareholders without a meeting was obtained, excluding any appreciation or depreciation directly or indirectly induced by the action or its proposal, and that value is binding on the company and the dissenting shareholder for all purposes; and
- (d) the company shall pay to the shareholder the amount in money upon the surrender by him of the certificates representing his shares.

(10) Shares acquired by the company pursuant to subsection (8) or (9) shall be cancelled but, if the shares are shares of a surviving company, they shall be available for reissue.

(11) The enforcement by a shareholder of his entitlement under this section excludes the enforcement by the shareholder of a right to which he might otherwise be entitled by virtue of his holding shares, except that this section does not exclude the right of the shareholder to institute proceedings to obtain relief on the ground that the action is illegal.
