

ANGUILLA FINANCIAL SERVICES COMMISSION

From the Office of the Deputy Director

Anguilla Financial Services Commission launches its official website: www.fsc.org.ai

The Anguilla Financial Services Commission today launched its official website. The site, which was designed by members of the Commission's staff and UK based web-designer, Mr. Roy Peacock has as its URL address: www.fsc.org.ai

The website features extensive background information on the role of the Commission and the licensing regime governing the operations of company managers, trusts service providers, insurance professionals, both captive and domestic, as well as similar information for mutual funds and protected cell companies. Details of Anguilla's anti-money laundering regime and licensees are also provided.

In announcing the launch of the website, Director of the Commission, Mr. John Lawrence commented that, "we have aimed to make FSC's website both informative and user-friendly. It will be FSC's policy to keep the site updated on a constant basis."

For more information contact Mr. John Lawrence at tel. no. 1 264 497 5881 or email: John_L@anguillafsd.com.

26th October 2004