

ANGUILLA FINANCIAL SERVICES COMMISSION

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

SENIOR LEGAL COUNSEL – FINANCIAL SERVICES COMMISSION

Applications are invited from suitably qualified persons to fill the post of Senior Legal Counsel with the Financial Services Commission.

The key duties of the post include: implementation of the Commission's role in ensuring that Anguilla meets international regulatory standards; oversight of licensees, NPOs and DNFBPs for compliance with Proceeds of Crime legislation; investigation of contraventions of licensing legislation; and assisting in the development of new and revised financial sector legislation.

Preferred qualifications for applicants include: call to the Bar in Anguilla with a minimum of 5 years working experience as a lawyer; and experience in making oral and written submissions in Court and before an administrative tribunal. Please refer to the Commission's website at <http://www.fsc.org.ai> for further details about the position.

Persons interested in the position should send their letter of application and resume, together with a sample of a report or document drafted by the applicant (not to exceed 10 pages), by the deadline of 22 July 2019 to: Head, Administration, P.O. Box 1575, The Valley, Anguilla.